EAST ROSEBUD CREEK

Acreage: 25

Absolutely beautiful property located along the banks of the Rosebud Creek, 2.5 miles south of Absarokee, Montana. The East Rosebud Creek property consists of 24.69 total acres, with outstanding building potential. The acreage has already been approved for septic, as well as homesites with floodplain development permits on record. Highway access, river frontage, and a dream spot to build your future home or cabin, is hard to find in this location. The location to this property is outstanding, with the beautiful town of Red Lodge located less than 30 miles away and a large city like Billings only 50 miles away. This place is competitively priced and ready to sell.
